Dawn Neill Named Interim Vice President for Research

Dawn Neill will assume the role of interim vice president for research effective May 1, 2023, through Aug. 31, 2026. Neill has served as administrator in charge (AIC) for Research, Economic Development and Graduate Education since Sept. 12, 2022, and is a professor of anthropology in interdisciplinary studies in the Liberal Arts Department. Since beginning as AIC for R-EDGE, Neill has worked to enhance campus opportunities and funding for research, scholarly and creative activities. This includes developing and implementing the Proposal Development Program to provide faculty release time to develop grant proposals, and working collaboratively with the deans and the office of the provost to develop and implement the Teacher-Scholar Model mini-grant program to broaden the scope of internal funding in support of the Teacher-Scholar Model. Previously Neill served as director of research engagement and internationalization in the College of Liberal Arts. She has also chaired the Cal Poly Grants Review Committee and was a member of the research advisory council for R-EDGE.

Celebrate President's Diversity Award Winners on May 4

The entire community is invited to honor campus champions for diversity, equity and inclusion at this year's President's Diversity Awards ceremony, hosted by the Office of University Diversity and Inclusion. This year's event will take place from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, May 4, at the Performing Arts Center lobby and plaza. Winners were selected from an open call for nominations and will be recognized in the categories of faculty, staff, student organization, campus department and Excellence in Inclusive Design, as well as the Dolores Huerta "Si Se Puede" Award for Transformational Leadership. Enjoy catering from local Black, Indigenous and people of color- (BIPOC) owned businesses and help us honor this year's winners. For more information about the event and to RSVP, visit <https://diversity.calpoly.edu/presidents-diversity-awards>.

Safer Hosts Annual Take Back the Night on April 27

Safer will host Sexual Assault Action Month throughout April. The month culminates in Safer's biggest night of the year — Take Back the Night — from 5-8:30 p.m. Thursday, April 27, in the UU Plaza. Take Back the Night is an international movement against sexual violence, with its own roots in San Luis Obispo since the 1980s. With a focus on uplifting survivors and building empowerment in community, this event will feature live music from local bands Próxima Parada and Kiwi Kannibal, catered food, art installations, resource fairs, speakers from the local community, a solidarity march, and will end with a candlelight vigil. This event is made possible with generous support from ASI Events, Planned Parenthood and the Career Services Diversity Funding Committee. For more information, visit <https://safer.calpoly.edu/saam>.

Help Raise Awareness at Out of the Darkness Walk on April 29

The campus community is invited to participate in the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention's annual Out of the Darkness Community Walk at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 29, at the UU Plaza. Check-in and other event activities start at 10 a.m. Hosted by the Greater Los Angeles and Central Coast Chapter of AFSP, this gathering will support the organization's education, research and survivor support programs. ### Celebrate Workplace Safety April 28 — and Every Day

World Day for Safety and Health at Work is on April 28, and Environmental Health and Safety is continuing to ensure that the Cal Poly community has a safe place work, teach and advance Learn by Doing. EHS has relaunched the use of Risk and Safety Solutions (RSS) Software to campus, with live trainings and recordings of past trainings available on its website. RSS is vital to keeping campus facilities, employees, students and the environment secure. To promote a safe community and to learn more about RSS, visit <https://afd.calpoly.edu/ehs>. Anyone who sees a hazard or has a suggestion is asked to report it so that EHS can continue to improve campus work and learning spaces. And on Friday, celebrate someone who is going above and beyond in helping to create a safe campus. Give them kudos and share how they have contributed toward campus safety: <https://afd.calpoly.edu/ehs/hazreport>.

Find Purrr-fect Plants, Pottery and Cats at the Poly Plant Shop

Come to the Poly Plant Shop April 29-30 for cats, pottery, plants and more. The shop will host a variety of local artisans from the San Luis Obispo County arts and horticulture community in celebration of spring from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day at the horticulture unit. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the Cal Poly Cat Program, a nonprofit cat rescue and sanctuary operating on the Cal Poly campus, as a thank you from the plant shop's resident cat, Tom. Twenty-year-old Tom is a fan favorite at the greenhouses, where he has lived since he was adopted from the Cal Poly Cat Program in 2006. The festivities, open to the public, will be held at the Environmental Horticultural Sciences Building (No. 48) on Via Carta Road off Highland Drive. Parking will be available for free in lot H14.
