veterans and uniformed ROTC students, turned out to celebrate the dedication of the new Center for Military-Connected Students on Nov. 9, a few days before Veterans Day was observed on Nov. 11. The new facility serves about 700 military-connected students, including 100 active-duty students, veterans and the rest whose parents or spouse has served. The larger space — twice the square footage of its original location — gives students more room to study, seek guidance and to find community, support and resources to meet their specific needs. "We want students to feel incredibly comfortable in this space and use it as they need it," said Kari Leslie, lead coordinator for the center, who received resolutions in support of the center from U.S. Rep. Salud Carbajal and state Sen. John Laird."This is their space," she added. It is in the Welding Building (No. 58), Room 109A, across from the University Police Department. County Supervisors Debbie Arnold, District 5, and John Peschong, District 1, provided $55,000 in grants. Another $20,000 grant was from county Veterans Services Officer Morgan Boyd.

SLO Master Chorale presents "Chants Encounter" on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 3 p.m. in Harold Miossi Hall. "Chants Encounter" begins with a performance of Te Deum by the contemporary composer Arvo Pärt. The Estonian octogenarian forged his own personal style that evolved into compositions deeply influenced by medieval chant. Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's 1791 concert aria, "Per questa bella mano," for baritone and with contrabass obbligato, concludes the first half of the concert. The second half features Mozart's Mass in C minor, one of his greatest works.

The Center for Service in Action invites students, staff, faculty and their families to contribute to the Mustang Holiday Gift Drive by picking up a gift tag and purchasing a gift for a child in need, or by donating money via the center's direct giving link. Each tag represents a specific request supporting local children and families in need. Pick up a gift tag: the Recreation Center Lobby (No. 43); the second floor of the UU (No. 65); and outside the Mustang Success Center in the Science Building (No. 52) Room D37. Bring newly purchased, unwrapped gifts to the CSA in Sierra Madre Residence Hall (No. 113) Room L119 by Monday, Dec. 4.
