Feedback Sought for Cal Poly Vintage Merchandise

University Marketing has gathered vintage logos, marks and graphics from the Cal Poly archives. The Trademark Licensing office is interested in developing vintage inspired merchandise and values feedback from the campus community as the team explores the possibilities. Take the short survey if you're interested in seeing these visuals and offering input. All responses are anonymous and shared only internally. New Vanpool Starting for Santa Maria Commuters

A Santa Maria vanpool is being formed, Transportation and Parking Services announced. This van will run Monday to Friday and will accommodate an 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. work schedule. TAPS subsidizes Cal Poly vanpools to make them an extremely affordable option to commute to and from campus. For more details on the Santa Maria Vanpool, contact Colin Pollington, sustainable transportation coordinator, at ext. 6-6680 or cpolling@calpoly.edu.

RETIREMENTS

The campus community is invited to recognize three retiring professors from the Electrical Engineering Department. With a combined 67 years of service at Cal Poly, Ali Shaban (40 years), Daniel J. Malone (18 years) and Richard Murray (nine years) will be honored at a celebration Monday, June 10, from 4- 6 p.m. in the Advanced Technologies Lab (No. 07).
