Cal Poly Innovation Capabilities Expanded with New 5G Innovation Lab

The Cal Poly Digital Transformation Hub (DxHub) is expanding its innovation capabilities with the Cal Poly 5G Innovation Lab powered by Amazon Web Services, Federated Wireless and T-Mobile. Using established DxHub innovation methodology, students and faculty will use 4G-LTE and Cal Poly private 5G technologies to identify new and improved networking solutions to real-world challenges. Cal Poly's private wireless network, which runs on AWS combined with T-Mobile service, enhances connectivity on campus and provides a leading-edge platform for innovation. The first major use case will be at the William and Linda Frost Center for Research and Innovation, where the technologies will help advance cutting-edge projects and research. The Cal Poly 5G private wireless network has also extended public cell coverage and emergency services in the Poly Canyon area of campus. Introducing Cal Poly private wireless technology will not only improve university connectivity and operations, it will also unlock new opportunities for global impact. To celebrate the announcement, a ribbon-cutting was held on May 25.

Buy Summer Parking Permits Starting June 12

Employee summer parking permits go on sale Monday, June 12. Finding a parking permit option that best fits your commute is easy using your parking account. Daily, weekly, monthly, quarterly and annual parking permits are available online for purchase any time of day at your union rate. Permits sold in parking lots at pay stations, parking meters or by ParkMobile do not offer staff rates. Summer quarter permits are valid June 19 to Sept. 11. Spring quarter parking permits will expire June 18. Purchase permits online and update your vehicle information at <https://calpoly.t2hosted.com/Account/Portal>.

Seats Available in Santa Maria/Arroyo Grande Vanpool

There are seats available on the Santa Maria/Arroyo Grande vanpool. This van runs Monday through Friday and accommodates a 7:30 a.m.-4 p.m. work or school schedule. For specific information on the Santa Maria/Arroyo Grande vanpool, contact Sustainable Transportation Coordinator Colin Pollington at ext. 6-6680 or cpolling@calpoly.edu. Transportation and Parking Services subsidizes employee vanpools to make them an extremely affordable option to commute to and from campus.

Retirements

Liberal Studies Department Chair Lola Berber-Jimenez is retiring at the end of the 2022-23 academic year after 28 years of service to Cal Poly. Berber grew up in Mexico City and earned her teaching credential and a bachelor's degree in chemistry. She came to the United States in the 1980s and earned a doctorate in organic chemistry at UC Davis in 1990. She then worked as an assistant professor at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. At Cal Poly, she served as a faculty member in chemistry and biochemistry from 1995-09 before taking over as chair of Liberal Studies. Berber has served as the co-director of the Central Coast Science Project since 1996, a collaborative network of educators and scientists committed to finding ways to improve K-16 science education in California. She has positively influenced countless educators and will be greatly missed.

Kate Riley is retiring after a 20-year tenure as a professor in the Mathematics Department. While at Cal Poly over the past two decades, Riley's primary interest was in mathematics education. In 2016, she was named by the Society of Women's Engineers as the Most Supportive Professor. In addition to teaching, Riley was a co-director of the California Mathematics Project (Cal Poly SLO/CSU Bakersfield region) since 2004 and was the director of the Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Project for the Central Coast region for the past 11 years. Riley secured approximately $4.2 million in grant funding primarily to work with local area teachers in presenting workshops. She conducted approximately 900 hours of teacher's workshops during her time at Cal Poly. Her service to the department and students has been greatly appreciated and she'll be missed. Her aspirations include buying an RV and travel to Yellowstone National Park.

Faculty and staff are invited to celebrate the remarkable career and retirement of Dennis Elliot, executive director of energy and infrastructure planning on Wednesday, June 14. A dedicated member of the Cal Poly community for more than 40 years, Elliot has throughout his career demonstrated unwavering commitment to sustainability and leading the university toward a smaller environmental footprint, ultimately making a lasting impact on campus. Colleagues and friends are invited to join in sharing gratitude for his outstanding achievements and decades of service. This special occasion will be held at 3:30 in the JUSTIN and J. Lohr Center for Wine and Viticulture (No. 157). Save the date and use the official RSVP form to confirm attendance by Thursday, June 8.
