Drupal 7 Extended Support: Cal Poly Has Contracted HeroDevs to Support University-Hosted Websites

Cal Poly currently manages approximately 200 websites running on the outdated white/green Drupal 7 theme. Drupal support for these sites will officially end on January 5, 2025. To ensure continued functionality, ITS has partnered with HeroDevs, a company specializing in extending the lifespan of open-source platforms. This extended support will provide additional time for transitioning to Cal Poly's new Enterprise Web Service (more details will be shared soon). For Drupal 7 technical support or questions, contact or submit a ticket with the ITS Service Desk.

Cal Poly Partners' Marketing and Communications Department recently took home 11 international MarCom awards for programs, campaigns, branding and materials promoting outstanding collaborations and initiatives performed by the Cal Poly International Center, Kennedy Library Transformation, Administration and Finance, Public Safety and Partners. The team earned three platinum, six gold and two honorable mention awards for strategic thinking, campaign execution, website design and videos. This year, there were over 6,500 entries from throughout the U.S, Canada and 52 other countries. MarCom is one of the oldest, largest and most-respectful creative competitions in the world.

Coaches Needed for Winter Quarter: First-Year Success Program

The First Year Success Program (FSP) is looking for faculty, staff, and graduate assistants to serve as academic coaches for a freshman academic probation workshop. FSP coaches support a small student group by facilitating growth-centered conversations, engaging in goal setting and skill development, and exploring campus resources to help students move toward success in future quarters. The in-person workshops will be held Jan. 10. We are looking for community members who represent all areas of Cal Poly. All levels of experience and backgrounds are welcome. Questions? Please contact fsp@calpoly.edu.
