Student Developed Poly Canyon App

When Parker Jones first set foot in Poly Canyon during Week of Welcome, he was captivated. “I was very fascinated that a place like that could exist so close to campus,” said Jones, now a second-year software engineering major. “It sort of had this ... secretive appeal. [Poly Canyon] is something you sort of discovered on your own.” Jones began regularly hiking, stargazing and exploring the area, but quickly realized that most Poly Canyon maps he consulted contained inaccuracies. To solve the problem, Jones created the Poly Canyon app. Read About the Poly Canyon App: calpoly.edu/news

Mustang Media Group Wins 43 Awards and Joins Hall of Fame

In early March, Mustang News was inducted into the Associated Collegiate Press Hall of Fame, a national organization that recognizes and promotes excellence in student media. The honor was given during the Associated Collegiate Press Spring National College Media Conference, which took place at the same time as the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System Conference. Besides the Hall of Fame recognition, the organization received a combined total of 43 awards, including a Best Faculty Advisor for Radio award for journalism professor and KCPR advisor Patti Piburn. Study Launches April 7: Intergenerational Child and Adult Care Needs

Cal Poly is exploring the creation of an intergenerational childcare and adult care facility to better support the campus community, and we'll need your input. The proposal features Learn by Doing with hands-on learning and research opportunities for students while fostering meaningful connections between young children and older adults. The survey, which goes live Monday, April 7, will help gauge interest and assess the feasibility of an on-campus intergenerational care facility to serve the needs of campus employees, students and other stakeholders. The online survey will take about 15 minutes to complete, and responses are confidential.

Cal Poly Alumni: Wine and Beer Garden at Open House

Join us for one of our favorite events of the year — the Cal Poly Alumni Wine and Beer Garden, happening Saturday, April 12, from 1:30 to 4 p.m., at the Engineering Plaza on campus! Faculty and staff presale tickets are only $15 using code CPREPORTfacstaff at checkout. Tickets include tastings of wine, beer and cider (for guests 21+) as well as non-alcoholic beverages. Plus, enjoy a delicious taco bar from Efrens with all the tasty fixings, Cal Poly Creamery ice cream and local favorite Cowboy Cookie. Limited tickets will also be sold at the door starting at 2 p.m.

Campus Blood Drive April 17

Be a hero and save up to three lives in just an hour. Join a campus blood drive hosted by University Personnel on Thursday, April 17. A Vitalant bus will be parked at Dexter Lawn University Drive Extension. Appointments are available between 10 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. Scheduled donations are prioritized over walk-ups. Donors are encouraged to hydrate well and eat a hearty meal before donating. Contact Human Resources at humanresources@calpoly.edu for more information.
